IstriaLux is an agency made up of people with vast experience in the field of tourism and great love for their region, which we want to present in an interesting and authentic way to our guests and future friends.

Every trip is motivated by the desire for a unique experience, and we enjoy it the most when we meet the expectations of our guests.

The name IstriaLux came as a combination of two words, Istria – the region we love, and Lux (light and luxury), with the word “luxury” not referring to something materially expensive, but a “luxurious” experience.

In order to provide a unique experience for our guests, we select only the best that Istria has to offer, top facilities and excellent hosts, the best local offers and attractions, everything we enjoy.

We especially love “hidden gems” and a personal approach that only locals can provide.

The experience of a destination in this way, where the host and guest establish a connection through exploration of the new area, is what fulfils both sides, and we are sure that this is the foundation of sustainable tourism.

We personally stand behind each of our houses and hosts, recommended facilities and attractions, and guarantee top quality with our signature.
